

Gayle Gregory, a Sought-After Coach, Veteran of Radio Talk Shows, and an Inspirational, Take-No-Prisoners Speaker Rewires Business for Success

Are you a 'We' organization? Do you want to be?

You are primed for a most provocative speaker!

During these changing times, it is only natural to ask questions and rethink business as usual attitudes and best practices. All evidence points to the fact that we must find a better way to do business.

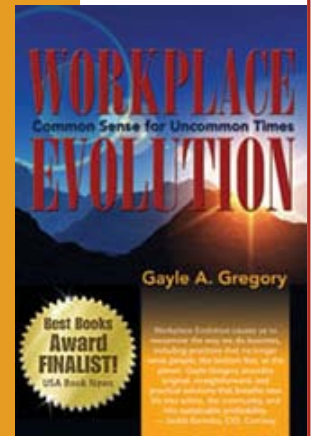

Book our co-founder, Gayle Gregory, award winning author of Workplace Evolution: Common Sense for Uncommon Times, and ignite your organization into unified action.

3 keys to unstoppable business success:

- Why it is crucial to evolve now
- The surprising obstacle
- 12 requisite paradigm shifts

Move into readiness and unified action:

- Increase performance and profits
- Engage employees and customers
- Trust your organization's vision
- Align and invest in a common goal

Workplace Evolution (WE) is now booking speaking engagements for 2010 and the first quarter of 2011. Receive a 10% discount when you pay your deposit by Dec. 31st. Call 503.313.1260 or 858.583.3097 to reserve your date and to ensure availability.

Order your copies at www.WorkplaceEvolution.com
Price discounts for bulk orders

Gayle Gregory is the author of award-winning business management and leadership book, Workplace Evolution: Common Sense for Uncommon Times, and co-author of The Grand Experiment, an Expedition of Self Discovery. She is a former senior manager with two Fortune 500 companies and the co-founder of Workplace Evolution, a provocative organizational development firm and think tank for the creation of community.

Ms. Gregory also founded Pure Possibility, a coaching and mentoring program that works with individuals and with men in Oregon State's medium security prison.